Announcement

Change is inevitable, a change for an improved pink is even better.

We, at pink uphold simple but non-negotiable value... integrity... in everything we do, inside or outside work. Staff is oriented from day one... to work at pink, two things must be remembered, not to do anything illegal and not to do anything immoral...

Skills can be developed but values are embedded... it's not something we take lightly. With that being said, we recruited a new receptionist on board. "Ella" is our bright and friendly new member.

Ella is more than happy to assist you in your salon needs...
